THE [Numb. 830.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, April 2, 1761.

PARIS, January 6.

THE Court has juſt purchaſed in Sweden and Denmark, 18 or 20 Men of War, which being joined to thoſe we have in our Ports, beſides a prodigious Number of flat-bottomed Boats, will be more than ſufficient to carry Terror and Diſmay into England and Scotland, where the Court has no Way loſt Sight of certain Plans for Deſcents, that were ſent to us about three Years ago. Nevertheleſs, in the Midſt of this flattering Proſpect, we ſee with Regret, that the Prince de Soubize is appointed to the Command on the Lower Rhine: We know his Proteſtreſs, and doubt not that this is the Fruit of her Intrigues.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Uſſar, Jan. 7. We remain quiet in our Quarters here. We have received an Account, that Count Broglio, with a large Body of Troops, and aſſiſted likewiſe in his Operations by Lieutenant-General M. de Stainville, attacked, on the 2d inſtant, the Town of Duderſtadt, which is at the Extremity of his Serene Highneſs's Cantonments on the Left. General Manſberg was poſted there, but found it neceſſary to quit the Town, (which the Enemy entered) and to take Poſſeſſion of the Heights of Gerbiſhagen, where he maintained himſelf till the Arrival of the General Kielmanſegge and Luckner to his Succour, who, the next Day, attacked the French in Duderſtadt, drove them from thence, and purſued them as far as Witzenhauſen. The Loſs of the Enemy upon this Occaſion, amounts, by their own Accounts, to 600 Men; 200 of them have been made Priſoners; among whom are three complete Companies of French Grenadiers. The Loſs on our Side, is about 190 Men.

Vienna, Jan. 2. The King of Pruſſia's Propoſals to this Court have been rejected. England did alſo ſend a Plan of Pacification, which, after being examined in Council, was diſpatched to Verſailles, with Orders to our Ambaſſador to inform the French Miniſtry, that the Empreſs his Sovereign had looked upon that Plan, with great Indifference, and as no Ways acceptable; and that ſhe was determined to riſk the Fate of the approaching Campaign; but that ſhe entreated his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to take ſuch Meaſures that this Campaign may be the laſt, as ſhe foreſaw it would be impoſſible for her to find Money enough for making another.

Brandenbourg, Jan. 8. By Means of the great Number of Recruits lately raiſed in the King's Dominions, we expect that his Majeſty will open the next Campaign with about an Hundred and fifty Thouſand Men, a good Part of which will be ready for Action towards the End of February, not ſooner. Our Strength is not ſo far exhauſted as our Enemies may imagine; nay, we have Room to expect that the King's juſt Arms will win this Year, even greater Advantages than they have reaped ſince the Beginning of this War.

LONDON, January 6.

On Saturday died, at his Houſe in Albemarle Street, of a Mortification in his Foot, aged near Eighty, Lieutenant General John Huſke, Governor of Jerſey, and Colonel of the 23d Regiment of Foot, the Welch Fuzileers.

Extract of a Letter from France, by the Flanders Mail.

"About 39 Sail of Ships have been carried into Breſt, Morlaix, and St. Maloes, in the Space of 15 or 20 Days, by our Privateers; Capt. Delile, of Dunkirk, has taken three of the above, two had on board 1200 Hogſheads of Tobacco, and the other 400 Hogſheads of Sugar. Our Orders for the Purchaſe of Tobacco in England are ſtopped, on Account of the many Veſſels from Virginia and Maryland, being brought into our Ports by Privateers.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hague, Jan. 16. It appears that the Deliberations of the States of Holland and Weſt-Friſeland, which turned only upon Redreſs of Abuſes and new Arrangements in the Republic, have been interrupted by ſeveral Demands made from England. General Yorke, at a Conference laſt Week with the Deputies of their High Mightineſſes, called for Payment of an Hundred Thouſand Pounds Sterling, which the Dutch Eaſt-India Company have engaged to lay down for the hoſtile Affair that happened in the River of Bengal. His Excellency declared, that as the Dutch were the Aggreſſors in that Affair, and fully convinced of their being in the Wrong, he intreated their High Mightineſſes to give Orders, and at the ſame Time look after the Execution thereof, that the ſaid Company ſhould forthwith perform the Engagements they had contracted on that Score.

"From the Aſſembly of the States-General, this Demand was carried to that of their Noble and Great Mightineſſes, and it is not doubted but the Money will be privately paid, in order to ſtop the Clamour of many Merchants, who are continually harping upon the Injuſtice that was done them in London, on Occaſion of the Deputation ſent thither to ſettle Differences about Trade and Navigation."

Jan. 12. We are informed that the Government has, within theſe few Days, contracted for 30,000 Ton of Shipping, which is to be got ready with all poſſible Diſpatch, for the Service of an Expedition, which will ſhortly take Place, and for Number of Ships, Forces, &c. it is ſaid will be the moſt formidable that ever went from this Iſland.

Jan. 19. Two French Turky Ships are taken by an Engliſh Privateer, Simon Forbes, Commander, and are carried into Leghorn; one the St. Jean Baptiſta from Marſeilles, and the other commanded by Capt. Mordeau for Marſeilles.

Jan. 23. There have been taken, in the Space of two Months, 15 Ships from Virginia and Maryland, bound to the Port of London, having on board upwards of 7000 Hogſheads of Tobacco; there are ſtill miſſing from Virginia and Maryland to the Port of London, 7 more Veſſels.

The Ann, Dougall Shonnan, from Maryland, bound to Glaſgow, was drove on Shore the 1ſt Inſtant, about ten Miles below Glaſgow; Ship and Cargo entirely loſt.

Jan. 24. Several Mortars, and a great Quantity of Bombs, are preparing at Woolwich, in order to be ſent to Portſmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, January 13.

"Our Artificers in the Dock-yard are ſo extremely hurried, that they work on Sundays."

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 20. His Majeſty's Ship Venus of 36 Guns and 240 Men, commanded by Capt. Harriſon, arrived the 16th Inſtant at Plymouth, and brought in with her the Brune, a French Frigate of 32 Guns, and 316 Men, and a French Privateer of St. Maloes, of 6 Carriage and 6 Swivel Guns, and 39 Men. The Venus was in Company with the Juno, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, commanded by Capt. Philips, when they fell in with the Brune, on the 10th Inſtant, 50 Leagues to the Weſtward of Scilly: After a Chace of ſome Hours, the Venus came up with her, and engaged her upwards of two Hours, when the Juno coming up, and firing a few Guns, the Brune ſtruck. The Venus had 4 Men killed, and 18 wounded, among the latter were Capt. Harriſon, his firſt Lieutenant and Maſter; the Juno had 2 Men wounded. The Brune had 19 killed, and 39 wounded.

FROM A LATE LONDON PAPER.

THE King of Portugal perceiving that the vaſt Quantities of Gold that came from Braſil did but juſt touch at Liſbon, and then travelled over all the Countries in Europe, directed this Matter to be very ſeriouſly conſidered and examined by his Council, ſuppoſing that if a Method could be found out to prevent this Gold from ſtraying, the Buſineſs would be done, and himſelf become one of the richeſt Princes in Europe.

His Council accordingly examined this Point very carefully, and reported, that the Engliſh and Dutch ran away with all the Gold, in Conſequence of their furniſhing the Goods and Manufactures that were ſent to the Braſils; they therefore propoſed, that the uſing theſe Goods, and the wearing theſe Manufactures, ſhould be prohibited in the Colony, and that the People ſhould be contented with what could be ſent from Portugal. This was conſidered as a great Stroke of Policy, and was on the Point of being put in Execution, when Lord Galway, who was there in Behalf of his Nation, and had the Confidence of the King, demanded an Audience, and delivered himſelf in the following Manner.

"YOUR Majeſty cannot be ſufficiently commended for the ſteady Attention you have always ſhewn to the Affairs of your Government; and the Pains you have lately beſtowed in examining into the Balance of Trade, is a new Proof of that Merit which would entitle you to the Crown, had it not deſcended to you from a long and glorious Line of royal Anceſtors. But permit me, Sir, to obſerve, that there is a greater King, one by whom all Kings reign, and whoſe Providence is over all his Works. According to his Diſtribution of Things, Riches belong to ſome Nations and Induſtry to others, and by this Means the Liberality of Heaven is made equal to all. Vain, Sir, are all human Councils when oppoſed to his Wiſdom, and feeble the Efforts, even of royal Power, when directed to croſs his Will.——You have forbid Gold to be exported out of your Dominions, and you would willingly inforce the Prohibition, but the Thing is impracticable; you may reſtrain your Subjects, but you cannot ſet Bounds to their Neceſſities: But ſay that this was poſſible, ſuppoſe you could defeat the Induſtry of the Northern Nations, what would be the Conſequence? The Huſbandmen, Graziers, Weavers, and all that infinite Train of Manufacturers, who now Labour quietly at Home to cloath and feed your Subjects, would then turn Soldiers, and inſtead of ſeeing them Merchantmen in the River of Liſbon, you would hear of their Fleets conveying them to Braſil to fetch much more of that Gold than you now fetch for them.

"Beſides, Sir, if they are Gainers by your Trade, they become thereby the natural Guarantees of your Dominions; it is not only their Treaties but their Intereſts that bind them to your Service, you have potent Enemies, and you receive powerful Friends.—The Ambition of France knows no Bounds; the Pride of Spain will teach her to keep a perpetual Claim to your Territories and Crown; you have no Recourſe to fruſtrate the Views, and defeat the Endeavours of thoſe Potentates, but to the maritime Powers, and therefore let me beſeech your Majeſty to conſider that every Project to diſtreſs them, is in Effect a Scheme to deſtroy yourſelf."

We have only to obſerve, by way of Application, that this Remonſtrance had it's deſired Effect.

BASSETERRE (in St. Chriſtophers) February 25.

His Majeſty's Ship Levant, Captain Tucker, ſent into St. John's in Antigua, the 17th Inſtant, a French Privateer of 10 Guns.

His Majeſty's Ship Griffin, Capt. Taylor, has ſent in a Dutch Sloop, bound for Martinico with Proviſions.

The following Prizes are ſaid to have been carried into Martinico between the 20th and 31ſt of January, viz. Ship Betſey, Rodman, from Philadelphia: Ditto Firſt of Auguſt, Whitlock, from Ditto: Snow Argo, Parker, from New-York: Buckhaven Galley, Green, from Long Iſland: Schooner Mermaid, Baſs, from Boſton: Sloop Dove, Kelſy, from New London: Ditto Mary, Caron, from South Carolina: Ditto Abigail, Todd, from New London: Ditto Speedwell, Oliver, from North Carolina: Ditto Polly, from Gibraltar for Salem: Ditto Speedwell, Johnſon, from New Haven: A Snow, Sherburn, from Piſcataqua: A Sloop, Wells, from New London:——, Brag, from Briſtol: And ——, Taber, from Boſton.

Some Priſoners from Martinico have brought an Account, that a new General, with two Frigates, are arrived there from France.

A French Ship of 18 Guns was brought Yeſterday into the Road of Baſſeterre, by two Letter of Marque Ships bound from Briſtol for Jamaica. The Prize was bound for the Cape from Bourdeaux.

NEW-YORK, March 23.

Extract of a Letter from Montreal.

"The Caſe of the poor Canadians is really deplorable, occaſioned by the Bankruptcy of the Crown of France. Many of them who had, with great Danger and Labour, acquired Eſtates worth 20,000 l. Sterling, by the Fur Trade, or otherwiſe, can now ſcarce procure a Dinner. All their Remittances from their Mother Country, conſiſted in Bills on the French King, which are not now worth one Farthing, as no Body whatever will accept of them in Payment. It is computed there is above the Value of 3,000,000 l. Sterling of theſe uſeleſs Paper Scraps circulated through the Colony, which, as a Reward to the wretched Inhabitants, for all their Hardſhips and Fatigues, muſt now ſupply the Place of Affluence and Independence. Moſt, if not all of them, are perfectly reconciled to the Engliſh Government, as they can now with Security enjoy any little Property they have; whereas formerly Governor Vaudreuil made no Ceremony of ſeizing the Produce of their Lands, their Merchandize and Manufactures of every Kind, and, after conveying them to the King's Store-houſes, paid to the Proprietors any Price he pleaſed. If the Owners thereafter had Occaſion for any of their own Commodities, they could not procure them under twenty Times the Price they had received."

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.

By Captain Robeſon, from St. Chriſtophers, we are informed, that juſt before he ſailed, a Privateer came in, and brought Advice, that Commodore Douglas had taken a French 74 Gun Ship and a Frigate; and that he had burnt another Frigate at the Grenades.

Beſides the Prizes mentioned, under the St. Chriſtophers Head, to be carried into Martinico, the following are ſaid alſo to have been taken, and ſent in there, from the 23d of January to the 15th of February, viz. A Brig, two Schooners, and three Sloops, from New-London, Captains Hiern, Perkins, Deſhon, Durell, Stilman, and Miller. A Brig and Sloop from New-York, Captains Buſh and Wilſon. Two Sloops from Salem, Captains Chitman and Porter. A Schooner from Marblehead, Capt. Reed. A Snow from St. Euſtatia, Captain Oſton. Alſo two Sloops, bound to Salem, Captains Davis and Swaſey, being beat off the Coaſt, were taken, and ſent into that Iſland. And a Snow from Piſcataqua, loaded with Maſts, was alſo carried in, but afterwards made her Eſcape.

From Boſton we learn, that on Thurſday, the 12th Inſtant, between 2 and 3 in the Morning, they had a violent Shock of an Earthquake there, which laſted about Half a Minute, but without doing any Damage: And that it was alſo felt at Portſmouth, in New-Hampſhire, at Newport, in Rhode-Iſland, and in New-London.

On Friday laſt the Harriot Snow Packet, Captain Braily, arrived at New-York from Falmouth. In her Paſſage ſhe was ſtruck with Lightning, which did the Veſſel conſiderable Damage, wounded one of her Hands much, and ſtunned the whole Crew for ſome Time, but they all recovered after a While.

The Prince of Wales, Yarrow, and the Neptune, Tindall, both from Maryland for London, are taken, and carried to St. Maloes.
